Accompanying the exhibition, From El Greco to Dalí, this book captures the breadth of this exhibition with 145 color illustrations in 215 pages. This book highlights the work of the Spanish masters in the Pérez Simón collection, one of the greatest collections of art in Latin America.

Véronique Gerard-Powell, Senior Lecturer at the Sorbonne, offers an in depth and original interpretation of this selection of works by some of the greatest masters of the Spanish School, including El Greco, Sorolla, Picasso, Dali, and Miró.

This volume, spanning five hundred years of history, presents an extraordinary artistic array. From the Old Masters to the Avant-Garde, it celebrates the power and appeal of Spanish art.
